6-3-3 Plan To Be Adopted

New High School To Effect Changes In Local System

The Salem Public School system will undergo one of the greatest changes in several decades when the city's new $2 million senior high school is opened for the first time this fall.

Use of the new school will permit adoption of a six, three, three school program; i.e., six years of elementary school training, three years of junior high school and three years in the senior high.

Already the wheels are being put into motion by school officials for this transition so that the adjustments will come naturally, with hardly any interruptions in normal operations.

The modern senior high school on E. Sixth St. will accommodate sophomore, junior and senior classes.

The old high school on N. Lincoln Ave. will become a junior high school, where seventh, eighth and ninth graders will study.

Pupils in the elementary grades below the seventh will attend one of the schools in their neighborhoods, either Buckeye, Prospect, Reilly or McKinley.

Heretofore, the Fourth Street building served as a combination grade school and junior high but the erection of the new senior high permits the planned conversion of the present high school into a junior high.

Teachers Face New Requirements

"Requirements for teachers entering the Salem public school system will be gradually increased," Supt. E. S. Kerr commented in viewing the city's educational future.

Kerr said only about 10 teachers in the entire city system have temporary teaching certificates. Presently, Salem schools have 140 faculty members, including supervisors and special teachers.

Commenting on educational opportunities at the city's new "dream" senior high school which will open this fall, the superintendent forecast these future developments:

Hour-Long Class Periods Planned

Classes will run continuously from 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. each day. They will be 55 minutes long with five minutes between periods. At noon there will be three staggered, 30 - minute lunch periods; however, classes will be going on at the same time.

The cafeteria will serve pupils and school personnel who want to stay for lunch. Supt. Kerr said that many of the youngsters probably would use the cafeteria because of the distance of the school from downtown Salem. Others who live some distance away may want to carry their lunches, he added.

By the time school opens this fall, the N. Lincoln Ave. entrance will be completed. A divided road, with two lanes on each side, will lead to the building.

Grading and seeding of the land area surrounding the school are well underway. Sidewalks being laid across portions of the 33-acre tract will be completed soon. Completion date for the new senior high school, which will comprise grades 10, 11, and 12, is set for Aug. 15.

Offices of the board of education and superintendent will remain in the old high school, which will house grades seven, eight and nine. The offices won't be moved due to two reasons — they are centrally located and because there's no room for them in the new structure.

'Abe' Loses Whiskers As Court Edict Is Carried Out

The crowd, in jest, had cried, "lynch him." But the judge of a Kangaroo Court during the Damascus sequentennial celebration last week decreed that Gordon Birkhimer, Damascus barber, be repatriated to normal living by obeying two court orders.

First, the barber, who failed to grow a beard for the celebration, was required to sell mustache wax to spectators of the mock early American courtroom.

Second, it was decreed that he give a free haircut and shave to the sequi beard contest winner, Earl Mather, of Garfield, who had a beard resembling Abe Lincoln, won the grand champion prize.

Last night Birkhimer opened his shop, especially to help Mr. Mather depart with his prize beard in accordance with the Kangaroo Court decree.

U.S. Forces In Zone Boosted

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—British troops landed in Jordan today as the United States airlifted more soldiers to the Middle East and the Soviet Union began sabre rattling close by.

British paratroopers from Cyprus flew to the Amman airport to support embattled young King Hussein against the wave of anti-Western Arab nationalism which dethroned and killed his cousin, King Faisal II of Iraq.

Hussein announced in a broadcast to his people that the landing was authorized Wednesday night by an emergency session of the Jordanian Parliament. In Amman, at least, the news caused no initial excitement.

Temporary Measure
The King said the foreign troops were in Jordan as "a temporary measure to protect our borders from enemies circling us in every direction." He said they had been asked in under Article 51 of the U.N. Charter, which provides for collective defense against armed attack without prior authorization from the U.N.

Observers in London believed that Hussein intended to try some sort of military action against the Iraqi rebels. The 23-year-old monarch has proclaimed himself the legal successor to Faisal as head of the Iraq-Jordan Arab union, and Britain reportedly has recognized his constitutional right to act against the rebels.

Still Uncertain
It was still uncertain, however, whether the British forces would confine themselves to safeguarding the Jordanian government or would actively support any military action by the King. Britain created Jordan after World War I and was its protector until last year, when Jordan broke the tie in a wave of nationalism.

President Nasser of the United Arab Republic warned Wednesday night that any aggression against the new Iraqi republic would be considered aggression against his Soviet-armed nation.

The British troops landed in response to an urgent plea from Hussein less than 48 hours after U. S. Marines swarmed ashore at Beirut to bolster the Lebanese government against rebels supported by the U. A. R.

Flew To Turkey
At least 1,600 U.S. soldiers flown from Germany to southern Turkey Wednesday were poised to support the 5,400 Marines in Beirut and offshore with the 6th Fleet. But reports of troop-carrier planes winging south across Austria indicated that more than the 1,600 men announced in Washington actually were on their way, and at least 11,000 were expected to be moved from Germany to the Middle East.

The American planes landed at Beirut for conferences with Secretary of State Dulles and possibly President Eisenhower. Diplomatic reports in Washington said Hussein had approached the United States for troops also but the State Department considered this primarily a job for Britain.

Dulles sent his ace troubleshooter, Deputy Undersecretary Robert Murphy, to Beirut, where some 3,600 Marines had come ashore without incident and taken station in the port area of the Lebanese capital.

Adm. James L. Holloway, the British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and defense chief Sir William Dickson flew to Washington for conferences with Secretary of State Dulles and possibly President Eisenhower. ## Lloyd Arrives To See Dulles

British Secretary Mum On Arrival

WASHINGTON (AP) — British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd flew to the United States today for the urgent task of coordinating U.S. and British policy in the boiling Middle East.

Landing at New York's Idlewild Airport on the heels of news that British forces had moved into Jordan to back up King Hussein's threatened pro-western government, Lloyd was non-committal.

Asked if he brought proposals from his government concerning the Middle East, the British diplomat would say only that he was "here for discussions with Secretary of State Dulles."

The White House also announced Lloyd would confer with President Eisenhower during the afternoon. The time was tentatively set for 3:30 p.m., EDT.

Japanese Prosecutors Call 3 Witnesses

Crowley Trial In 4th Session

TOKYO (AP)—Three more hotel employees testified today in an effort by Japanese prosecutors to prove that Joseph P. Crowley fatally beat his brother-in-law, T. A. D. Jones Jr., last May 8.

First to take the stand at the fourth session of Crowley's manslaughter trial was Kamekichi Ikeda, a night watchman at Tokyo's swank Imperial Hotel. The prosecution apparently sought to show that an intruder could not have beaten Jones to death.

Ikeda said he passed the room, which Jones and Crowley shared twice on the morning of May 8, as part of his normal rounds but saw no one in the vicinity of the suite and noticed nothing unusual.

Crowley has pleaded innocent to the charge of bodily injury resulting in death, an offense that under Japanese law carries a 2-15-year prison term.

Jones, 45, son of Yale's late football coach, T. A. D. Jones, formerly of Middletown, Ohio, and Crowley, 48, came to Japan May 5 to purchase an oil tanker. They were president and vice-president, respectively, of the T. A. D. Jones Co. of New Haven, Conn.

The second witness today was Yoshiomi Nakajima, 39, who was in charge of the hotel's front desk. He testified he saw a bloodstained towel on Jones' mouth as he lay dead on a bed in the suite that Crowley and Jones shared with Frederick M. Kissinger, 62, a public accountant of Brandywine, Md., who came to Japan with them.

Kissinger has since been cleared. Crowley is accused of beating his brother-in-law so severely after an all-night drinking spree that Jones died of a brain hemorrhage about 12 hours later.

The third witness, Shigeru Kurihara, 49, the hotel's night manager, said he went to the room around 5:30 a.m. in response to a call about an injured guest.

Kurihara said he noticed blood stains on both Crowley and Kissinger. The manager added: "There were bloodstains about two feet square on the carpet... around the telephone stand. Glass fragments were on the floor. Behind the sofa there was a towel with blood on it."

He said Kissinger told him the glass fragments were from a lampstand that Jones had knocked over while passing by.

Under defense cross-examination, Kurihara said it appeared to him that both Crowley and Kissinger had been drinking but that Crowley seemed "more drunk" than Kissinger.

Defense counsel Akira Shenoh said out of court that the defense was considering calling as a witness Ben H. Guill, vice-chairman of the U.S. Maritime Board. Guill arrived in Japan on the same plane as Crowley, Jones and Kissinger and occupied a nearby room.

Nakajima testified that Guill, who has returned to the United States, was in Jones' room when police arrived to investigate the death. It was not explained why Guill was there.

U.C. DEAN NAMED
CINCINNATI (AP)—Dr. Kenneth Wilson, assistant dean for graduate studies at Michigan State University, was named today to be dean of the University of Cincinnati's College of Business Administration, effective Sept. 1.

PLEADS GUILTY
CLEVELAND (AP)—A plea of guilty to selling fake appointments as State Liquor Board investigators brought Nick Pazin, 35, a sentence of 2-14 years in Ohio Reformatory Wednesday.

Ike Certain to Approve Nonmilitary Air Agency

WASHINGTON (AP)—Legislation creating a new civilian agency to coordinate nonmilitary problems of space exploration is awaiting President Eisenhower's signature.

Eisenhower is almost certain to sign it. The bill, passed in quick succession by both House and Senate Wednesday, gives Eisenhower practically all he requested in an agency to supervise civilian space age efforts.

The bill, a compromise of Senate and House space measures, puts the new space agency under the direct control of the President. He would be advised by an eight-member council, including three experts outside the federal government.

Under the bill, the Pentagon will continue to control space activities connected with national defense, with the President settling any disputes between the civilian agency and the Defense Department.

APPLICATION GRANTED
WASHINGTON (AP)—Hocking Valley Broadcasting Corp., of Lancaster, Ohio, has been granted its application for a new FM radio station there. The Communications Commission said the new station will operate on a frequency of 95.5 megacycles.

DiSalle Says O'Neill's Picnics Costly Affairs

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—If Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill doesn't have a big crowd at his Governor's Day picnic tonight in Athens, it won't be the fault of Michael V. DiSalle, O'Neill's Democratic opponent.

DiSalle toured the Sixth Congressional District, which includes Athens County, Wednesday and at each stop urged his audience to attend the governor's campaign extravaganza. The Toledo Democrat said:

"The sooner we can sop up this money (Funds for the picnics) the sooner we get to the issues of this campaign and get it off the carnival circuit."

"Don't worry is you don't have a ticket; go anyway. You'll get fed. It's a bargain you can hardly afford to miss. I urge you to go."

DiSalle's tour of the district wound up here after stops at McArthur, Pomeroy, Gallipolis, Wells-ton, Athens and Lancaster. The tour also marked the end of this week's caravanning by DiSalle.

Although he spent most of his time jibing at the GOP picnics, DiSalle also attacked O'Neill's claims of expanding mental health facilities and what DiSalle said was a delay of nine months in appointing a commission to construct a new state office building.

He said the governor's claims of putting Ohio ahead of all other states in construction of mental hospitals are based on a program started under the administration of former Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

"All of this is typical of the dynamic action the state has not received in the past year and a half," the candidate said.

City Births In '58 Outnumber Deaths

Births outnumbered deaths 7-1 in the city during the month of June, Dr. R. T. Holzbach, city health commissioner, announced.

Births for the month totaled 139, making a total of 791 births during the first six months of 1958.

Nineteen persons died during the month, raising the total to 131 for the first half of the year.

Of the June babies, 73 were boys.

compared to 66 girls. Thirty-three of the babies were born to residents of Salem while 106 births were to non-resident parents. One still birth was reported during the month, making a total of eight during the first six months.

Waitress' Murder Still Plagues Investigators

CINCINNATI (AP) — Two men are in custody but the mystery of the slaying of Miss Patricia Brashear, 22, still plagued investigators in the Hamilton County sheriff's office today.

The decomposed body of Miss Brashear, an unemployed waitress, was found in a thicket along a county road near here last Friday. She had been shot through the head.

The body was not identified positively until Wednesday.

Meanwhile, investigators had picked up Ralph Cox, 32, after finding his picture in her room. Officers said he admitted seeing her June 28. Then Kenneth L. Thompson, 26, formerly of Norwood, who had been sought in the case, surrendered to police at Dayton.

Science Puts Harness On H-Bomb Reaction

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new advance in the American quest to harness the H-bomb reaction for industrial power was reported today.

U. S. scientists have generated temperatures of an estimated 10 million degrees centigrade — almost twice the previous record held reported by the United States — testimony released by a House Appropriations subcommittee reported.

Dr. J. H. Williams, director of the Atomic Energy Commission's Division of Research, told of the development at recent hearings on AEC requests for supplementary appropriations for its various activities.

Williams said scientists at the University of California Radiation Laboratory and AEC facility, achieved the high temperature in research aimed at duplicating the powerful hydrogen fusion reaction for peaceful use.

He said this is about 10 per cent of the temperature that would be necessary to sustain such a reaction for power purposes—and is thus "well along the road" to the temperature objective.

Alaska's First Primary As 49th State Is Set

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—Gov. Mike Stepovich Wednesday set Aug. 26 as the date for a referendum vote on statehood for Alaska and for Alaska's first primary election as the 49th state in the Union.

Alaska's first general election as a state was set for Nov. 25. The statehood act passed by Congress June 30 specified that Alaskans must approve, in a referendum vote, three propositions before statehood becomes a reality.

Those propositions are that Alaskans approve (1) immediate statehood, (2) the state boundaries as outlined in the statehood act and (3) all other provisions of the act.

Adams to Be on Spot In Another Inquiry

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional sources said today another series of public hearings appears certain on alleged attempts to gain favors through presidential assistant Sherman Adams.

This would be separate from the current inquiry by a special House Commerce subcommittee, which recalled Bernard Goldfine for an expected final day of questioning.

Both Adams and Goldfine, a Boston textile and real estate millionaire, have denied that Adams sought or obtained favored governmental treatment for Goldfine, a long-time friend.

The Investigations subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee today had its staff shifting files relating to the settlement at a reduced rate, of an Army penalty against Raylaine Worsted, Inc., Manchester, N. H. The firm is now defunct.

The subcommittee chairman, Rep. F. Edward Hebert (D-La.), would say only that the files are being evaluated and the committee expects to know soon what action it will take.

Opposition to States' Rights Bill Is Weak

WASHINGTON (AP)—A controversial states rights bill reached the voting stage in the House today, with the opposition apparently heavily outnumbered.

Backers of the court-curbing measure predicted passage by a margin of 2-1 or better, while opponents pinned their fading hopes on an amendment to prevent the bill from being retroactive.

There was a growing likelihood, though, that the bill would never become law. It hasn't been considered by the Senate, which has a full docket for the remaining weeks of this session. Two days of House debate also have brought hints of a veto because of Justice and Labor Department opposition.

The unusually brief bill—it's 71 words long—says in effect that when there are state and federal laws dealing with the same subject, the federal law doesn't supersede the state act unless there is a direct and irreconcilable conflict or unless Congress, when enacting the federal law, expressly gave it a priority.

Shoe on the Other Foot

As was predicted last May by senators who were demanding action on a labor bill this session, the opposition's strategy would be to tie it up in committee until adjournment.

The prediction is being borne out now with an unexpected twist.

The labor bill that cleared the Senate three weeks ago, to the astonishment of senators who had expected a long delay in the upper house and an even longer one in the lower house, is being tied up. But its opposition is led by the National Association of Manufacturers.

It is urging the speaker of the House of Representatives to send the Senate bill to the House Education and Labor Committee for full hearings, which would kill it as far as the 85th Congress is concerned. It says the bill passed by the Senate either should be drastically amended in the House or thrown out altogether.

It says the "half a loaf" of union reform contained in the bill is only window dressing to divert attention from provisions altering the Taft-Hartley Act.

It concedes, in other words, that the legislative strategy of making the bill palatable to union leaders by seasoning it with material that would be unpalatable to management has been an upside-down success. Neither side wants it now.

Whether the National Association of Manufacturers and those who feel the same way can block the bill's passage remains to be seen. The shoe is on the other foot now, however. It should be understood that those who want the bill to die are those who formerly were predicting it would be killed by the Democratic leadership of the Senate and House of Representatives.

Accept Not From Others

Congress will get no further with a code of ethics for its members than it was able to get with a code of procedure for its investigators.

The difficulty is that integrity cannot be defined like the rules of a game, or the recipe for a cake. It is a personal matter.

Washington is still chattering about the government employee who thought the dividing line between integrity and dishonesty was as narrow as the difference between a 12-pound ham and a ham weighing more than 12 pounds. But it might be no wider than that.

Most men know when they have been "bought," because they have predetermined their selling price. The wide variations in selling price are accounted for by wide variations in wants and needs. To learn what these are and to take advantage of them has been the preoccupation of "fixers" since the beginning of time.

Any public official who wanted to maintain his intellectual integrity unblemished could follow a rule like this:

Accept not from others what would be undue influence if you offered it yourself.

Moreover, any private citizen who wanted to maintain the integrity of a public official never would threaten it with anything more than could be construed by a critic as a token gift. It is conceivable that Sherman Adams' integrity was not hurt by what he received from Bernard Goldfine. But it is not conceivable that Mr. Goldfine makes a practice of distributing substantial gifts without thought of the consequences.

A year ago, the House of Representatives adopted a code of ethics to make government employees honest. Last week, the Senate, which had given the matter no thought before, backed up this House resolution.

It's good to know that Congress is in favor of honesty, but we reserve the right to reach our own conclusions about the intellectual honesty of individual congressmen.

Police caught an Ohio man after he broke into a pool room. He was racked up for six months.

The easiest way to see what's going on is to dress in front of a mirror.

Once Over

Ike signed a law demanding clear price tags on new autos and each extra. But here and there you'll find a dealer who will list the price tag as an extra.

Mayor Wagner's belated offer of a 12-million-dollar park for a major league club goes into the record books as the first case of man taking a year and a half to get to first base. (Or did he lose the ball in the sun?)

The New York City Council thinks it bad for horse tracks to admit children, even with parents, "because it might encourage them to develop betting habits," but for the first time it would legalize bingo on Sunday nights. (Be quiet, kiddies, and we will stand on our head and explain why seeing Mom and Pop gamble at race track would ruin you, while watching them hurry Sunday dinner to rush off to the bingo game would make you a fine citizen.)

The "Twenty One" program advertises medicine to "make you feel better fast." But could the sponsor have felt better any faster than by the end of Elfrida's rush toward $200,000 mark?

TO THE APPLE BLOSSOM scent and soap label fares the New York subway has added the de luxe beach train, the guaranteed seat, sweet music, the ad-dibbling conductor and suit-pressing service.

Movies, free lunch and even quiz shows may be just ahead, bringing the Transit Board face to face with the question, "What do we do for an encore?"

The Rockaway Beach train not only guarantees a seat but features clowns and toy balloons for kiddies. The conductor is a g-g-man. A cynical subway rider got off the train, we hear, voicing his disappointment in two words, "NO ACROBATS!"

"A seat for every passenger" slogan is revolutionary. Many subway riders, trained for years for combat service, are finding it hard to believe. Tickets via soap labels, special perfuming, seats and, now, suit and dress cleaning "automats" in the subway, where you can leave a suit in the morning and get it back at night are epochal.

Up to now a passenger has been lucky to get himself back at night, let alone his pants and coat.

Symbols of Peace

There is no way to know how big a force the United Nations would need if it became an international police agency. Charles Malik, foreign secretary of Lebanon, has estimated it would take 7,000 troops to put his country under U.N. control. Perhaps a standing police force of 25,000, highly trained and equipped with the best arms and transport, would be enough for all purposes.

But until the United Nations is given this means of enforcing its aim to prevent outbreaks of violence between nations, it is interesting to note what it seems to have been able to do in Lebanon with a scant 100 representatives acting as "observers."

These men, unarmed, are a symbolic dove on the shoulder, instead of the chip on the shoulder that challenges an armed opposition to try to shoot out a settlement. They have not stopped the shooting in Lebanon, but they have cooled off the hot threat of war.

It would be no more than a quarter of an hour's work to ambush and destroy the U.N. team of officers who are in Lebanon to report on its danger from military violence. But whoever did the job would have to be prepared to deal with the consequences.

It is the same thing that makes a patrolman walking a beat in a bad neighborhood a powerful symbol of the law, even though he may be armed with nothing but a nightstick. If anything happens to him, the consequences will be immediate.

Perhaps the time never will come when the United Nations will have its own standing army, ready to rush to the scene of trouble on a minutes notice. The time may never come, if it can be demonstrated that a few dozen people representing the United Nations can be just as potent as a few thousand, provided they are dispatched to the scene of trouble as symbols of peace who can be manhandled by warmakers only at the risk of starting something they cannot finish.

An Indiana woman found a $50 bill she had hidden 10 years ago. It's too bad old vases don't pay interest.

She says, "I HOPE THIS AIN'T A

WASHINGTON IS SUING Lever Brothers to make it give up a detergent called "All," acquired in an alleged "deal" with a chemical corporation. Will it be fighting for all or nothing at all?

Aside to Gov. Ribicoff of Connecticut? Is it fair play to paint out those auxiliary exit signs on the new Connecticut Thruway to make travelers pay three 25-cent tolls in a 25-mile stretch? (Folks thought the gov'nor had oft taken the stand against "unfair business practices."

It's always an odd fact that the brainiest contestants on a quiz show, flashing facts away back in the 12th century and coming up with little known names and dates on every topic, will goof on a question relating to modern events given widest publicity. It happened to the brilliant Elfrida Von Nardroff when she seemed baffled by questions which Nazi chief killed himself at the War Crimes Trials rather than face sentence. She said it was either Goering or Goebbels, and took Goebbels. Hundreds of newspaper articles and dozens of books described the death of Goebbels in a Berlin shelter with Hitler. The story of Goering's pill swallowing had been told again and again. It cost Elfrida $30,000 to miff this one. Our secretary, Ima Dodo, says, "I thought they both died of tired blood and iron deficiency."

Robert Leitchester, who beat Elfrida, worked as a singing waiter. He had to stop schooling because of the depression in 1931 and wasn't able to get back to college until a few years ago. He's a guy who smiles, win, lose or draw.

We KNOW Who Goes There—Halt!

'Cincspecomme' Is on the Job

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The strategy-making Joint Chiefs of Staff have handy how-to-do-it plans for all manner of situations, from nuclear wars down to landing in Lebanon.

The huge folio of tactics and strategy is kept constantly revised.

The period involved may be a short-range six weeks in the future or a long-range 15 years hence.

Even such details as a file of code names for tagging each operation and a "specified" command setup is ready. The command is established on paper, then kept dormant until the need for its use arises.

Thus "Cincspecomme" was ready. Translated from Pentagonese, that means "Commander in Chief, Specified Command, Middle East."

It now develops that Cincspecomme had existed, quietly, since a previous crisis in the Middle East, when Egypt and Israel quarreled along the Suez two years ago.

The United States, following its policy of keeping out of the Middle East hot spot, had made no provisions for an over-all, unified command in the Middle East until the Suez crisis threatened war.

Tuesday, as Marines landed in the Middle East, the Pentagon disclosed that Adm. James L. Holloway had hurried to the scene from his London headquarters to take over the dormant specified command under which naval and Marine units and any subsequent Air Force and Army units in the area will operate. This is in addition to Holloway's regular job as commander in chief of the West naval forces in the eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean (just call it "Cincelm").

The intricate details for getting men and supplies to the Middle East was part of the ready, over-all plan. Aircraft and ships were ready to provide the back-up support and reinforcements for the three Marine battalions afloat on ships in the Mediterranean.

Indeed, one phase of the logistics had been practiced weeks ago. The score of Air Force C124 transport-cargo planes which landed in Western Germany followed the pattern of a similar flight made about two months ago when the Middle East situation sharpened momentarily.

The assumption was that the first use for these huge, three-decker planes—each able to carry 200 soldiers—probably would be to transfer two airborne battle groups of the 24th Infantry Division to Lebanon.

These battle groups, transferred to the Germany-based infantry division when the 11th Airborne Division was deactivated, are specialists in this particular type of police action.

The 6th Fleet of the U. S. Navy, which roams the Mediterranean, has two primary functions: to provide air and sea support to the NATO forces in Europe if the Soviet Union strikes there, and to cope with incidents in the Mediterranean basin, like the threat to Lebanon's security.

The 6th Fleet is supposed to be able to operate independently of any supply or repair facilities ashore. Among its approximately 50 ships are provisions vessels, tankers and repair ships, all capable of keeping the fleet going even though war or diplomacy should close every Mediterranean port to the fleet.

Marines Landing In Lebanon Not 'Earth Shaking'

By itself, the landing of American Marines in Lebanon is not an earth-shaking event. United States landed lots of times in various parts of the world when it was necessary to protect American lives and property. Such action hasn't always led, to a war.

The really important point is that the United States has made a counter-demonstration in the "cold war" which has a far-reaching purpose—to impress the men in the Kremlin that the West will no longer acquiesce in the campaign of aggressive subversion that has been developing in the Middle East under the joint auspices of Moscow and Cairo.

Will the Soviet regime be impressed? The immediate reaction from the Soviet capital has been the customary denunciation of the American move and a pious defense of the revolutions in Lebanon and Iraq as noble efforts of nationalistic groups to deal with supposedly tyrannical governments.

Outside of these exchanges of view as to what caused the trouble in Iraq and Lebanon, the broader strategy turns to the United Nations. Here the Soviets, with their veto in the Security Council, can block any action looking toward a policing of the area.

THE THESIS that these are internal problems will be argued by the Communist representatives at the U.N. but this will not accelerate the withdrawal of the American Marines. In fact, President Eisenhower has stated that "the initial dispatch of troops will be augmented as required."

The remarks by Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge at the United Nations as well as the President's message to Congress and the American people indicate clearly that the American government does not view the Middle Eastern events as mere internal revolutions but as something directly propagated by the Soviet government.

President Eisenhower laid the case before the American people in these words:

"What we now see in the Middle East is the same pattern of conquest with which we became familiar during the period of 1945 to 1950. This involves taking over a nation by means of indirect aggression; that is, under the cover of a fomented civil strife the purpose is to put into domestic control those whose real loyalty is to the aggressor. . . .

"Yet indirect aggression and violence are being promoted in the Near East in clear violation of the provisions of the United Nations Charter.

"There can be no peace in the world unless there is fuller dedication to the basic principles of the United Nations Charter. If ever the United States fails to support these principles the result would be to open the flood gates to direct and indirect aggression throughout the world.

"In the 1930s the members of the League of Nations became indifferent to direct and indirect aggression in Europe, Asia and Africa. The result was to strengthen and stimulate aggressive forces that made World War II inevitable.

"The United States is determined that that history shall not now be repeated. We are hopeful that the action which we are taking will both preserve the independence of Lebanon and check international violations which, if they succeeded, would endanger world peace."

THE SITUATION has in it, of course, the ingredients of a serious crisis, depending upon how serious the rulers in Moscow want to make it. They would be taking a risk by letting a war crisis grow on the horizon, for it might be the signal for uprisings in East Germany and Hungary and in other states held captive by the Soviet dictatorship.

Also, it's hardly likely that the people of Soviet Russia will relish a big war, and this, too, might cause the Kremlin to hesitate to precipitate a break that could lead to war.

It looks, therefore, like one of those things that will bring a great deal of palaver in the U.N. without any action being taken except possibly to send more "observers" and military teams to try to arrange a "truce" or some kind of armistice. The discussion will doubtless be prolonged.

The United States government necessarily must look at the picture from the darkest side if the moves are to impress the Soviets. Certainly it is difficult to deal with the Communist techniques of subversion by just sending in Marines.

Bribery of local leaders and the smuggling in of arms from Egypt by the Communists can keep the fires of trouble burning in Iraq and Lebanon and perhaps later in Jordan.

THE WESTERN powers may have to face the fact that a larger military operation, possibly in the nature of a military protectorate, will have to be undertaken to keep the nations of the Middle East out of the hands of the Communists.

At the moment, the American action is based on many precedents in international law—the protection of lives and property of its nationals. Also, in the case of Lebanon, the existing government invited the troops of friendly powers to come in to help preserve its territorial integrity and independence.

It will be recalled that during the Truman administration, in 1947, the United States, at the invitation of the government of Greece, sent a military mission which thwarted the Communist infiltration there. This was called the "Truman Doctrine."

An amplified version of that intervention now is being applied under the "Eisenhower Doctrine."

Whatever the historical comparisons may show, the United States again is displaying a firm hand in an effort to avert a larger war.

The American Marines are in the Middle East not only to protect American lives and property but also to warn the Communists against further aggression. It does look like a showdown between the East and the West is in the making.

'Operation Bootstrap'

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Watchers for the turn in the recession tide sometimes look for signs on far-off beaches. And today they are trying to evaluate one such ripple — the chance that American manufacturers may be changing their minds about new plant and equipment spending. The wavelet, for what it's worth, is reported from Puerto Rico.

The reported about-face in recent weeks is restoring optimism to the island's Economic Development Administration which had reason to be pretty blue in the first three months of this year. During January, February and March only three U.S. manufacturers decided to start operations in Puerto Rico. Operation Bootstrap — encouraging American companies to set up branch plants and thus help pull the Caribbean land out of its economic slough — seemed to have sunk on the shoals of the mainland's recession.

Company after company told

Puerto Rican representatives that they weren't interested in expanding at this time.

But in April, May and June 54 companies signed up. This lifted the total for the fiscal year to 91.

The agency says the contracts involve jobs for 4,715 persons, a yearly payroll of $7,403,100 and capital investment of $9,103,926.

All this is too small in comparison with total U.S. plant expansion spending to be a determining factor in the length of the recession.

And it runs counter to all the statistics on industrial construction here, which in the first six months of 1958 ran 24 per cent behind a year ago. Also each poll of future intentions on expansion spending has been increasingly on the pessimistic or cautious side, so that little real help to the economy from that quarter has been expected until some months from now.

But one of the things economists have been looking for is any evidence of a change in business thinking — away from retrenchment and coasting and towards resumption of expansion and modernization of plants.

hether Puerto Rico's experience of the last few weeks signifies this, it's too early to say.

COLUMBIANA

Village Budget For '59 Estimated At $111,810

COLUMBIANA — Village Clerk S. Richard Orr Tuesday evening submitted for village council approval an estimated 1959 budget showing expenditures of $111,810 from the general fund.

Council set Aug. 5 at 8 p.m. as the time for a public hearing on the budget, which then will be forwarded to the County Budget Commission in Lisbon for revision and approval.

The figure for estimated general fund expenditures next year is down more than $8,000 over anticipated outlays from the fund this year. Orr said he estimated the lower figure because he couldn't see where any more revenue would come from.

The clerk is estimating income from the general property tax at $66,000 or $27,000 more than the estimated $39,000 due this year from the tax which is the major source of revenue for the general fund.

Other sources of sizeable income for the fund estimated in the tentative budget are: park and concessions, $18,000; sale of cemetery lots, $7,000; sales tax, $5,000; fines and costs, $4,000; classified property tax, $4,000 and balance at start of year, $2,000.

IN OTHER business council directed Solicitor Jack Kuhlman to prepare a resolution authorizing the Board of Public Affairs to purchase an accounting machine for its office. The board in a letter to council said it had voted to accept a Burroughs Co. bid of $3,491.25 on supplying the machine.

Norman Young, Ray Liston, Mrs. Helen McCoy, Mrs. Marian Glenn and Bob Ewing were winners in a slide contest conducted at the Columbiana Camera Club meeting this week at Firestone Park. Mrs. Glenn also received a trophy as winner in another recent slide contest.

The first degree will be staged by Midway Grange at its meeting this Saturday night in the Grange Hall. Butler Grange will put on the second degree. Women of Midway are asked to take cookies for the refreshment period.

Mrs. Cora Kurtz, Mrs. Ralph Crumbacher, Mrs. Ernest Cope and Mrs. Warren Miller attended a summer conference last week at Heidelberg College in Tiffin sponsored by the Women's Guild of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Police Search Woods For Escaped Convict

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio (AP) — Authorities continued their search of a wooded area in northwestern Noble County today for Herman Maroni, 30, of St. Clairsville, an escapee from a Florida prison believed hiding in that area.

The search began Tuesday night, when Maroni and another escapee, Robert Kubat, 22, who was later captured, were seen in Bethesda in Monroe County near Ohio's east border. The two escaped July 7. Both were serving sentences for armed robbery.

Kubat was arrested Wednesday shortly after the two were seen in an abandoned farm house in neighboring Noble County. He offered no resistance and was not armed.

Kubat told authorities that Maroni was armed and had promised he would not be taken without a fight.

Scores of state highway patrolmen, sheriff's deputies from many southeastern Ohio counties and civilian volunteers took part in the search Wednesday. But when darkness came the search was stopped and the area where Maroni was believed hiding was ringed in.

All roads were blocked and police searched Baltimore & Ohio Railroad trains which run through the area.

DAYTON BROTHERS INJURED
DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Two Dayton brothers, Bernard Hises, 12, and Jerry, 6, were injured Wednesday after they exploded a dynamite cap by hitting it with a hammer. Both boys suffered multiple shrapnel wounds and were reported in serious condition at Good Samaritan Hospital here. The cap apparently belonged to a limestone company near their home, sheriff's deputies said.

Two Youths Uncover Folsom Man Tools

CINCINNATI (AP) — Two youthful amateur archeologists believe they may have some evidence that the pre-historic Folsom man once ranged in the area around Cincinnati.

The name Folsom man is derived from the fact the first evidence of their presence 6,000 years ago or more was found in 1925 near the town of Folsom, N. M.

They apparently were hunters who kept on the move since most of their tools have been found in isolated spots as if dropped in a chase.

But there had been no evidence that they ever were in this part of the country until Fred Starr, 18, and Eric Carlson, 17, came upon an Eric Carlson, 17, came upon artifacts on a hilltop in the eastern part of the county.

"The hilltop was quite eroded and in yellow clay," Starr said. "I found a number of flakes, two points (spearheads) and a scraper."

Another scraper was turned up in a museum and Starr said he learned it had been given to the museum by a woman whose father once farmed the land in the same area.

Starr said he wouldn't claim definitely that the finds are Folsom artifacts but he added that the tools show the typical fluted workmanship of the Folsom man.

PIGEONS WON'T LEAVE

DALLAS (AP) — Technicians installed an oscillator and four speakers on City Hall, trying for frequencies that would drive away pigeons. When first tried, the solitary pigeon in sight took off—but only to return with three more.

"When tone frequency is cut down low enough to chase the pigeons, it hurts our own ears," said H. S. Garland, building engineer.

Judge Tobin Gives Talk at WCTU Picnic

"Drinking in Three Classes" was discussed by Juvenile Court Judge Louis Tobin of Lisbon, guest speaker at the annual picnic of the Columbiana County Woman's Christian Temperance Union Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Harry Bell, Lisbon-East Liverpool Road.

"These classes are social pay-day and drinking to drown troubles," the judge told the women. He also told of the unhappiness and broken homes that are brought about by drinking alcoholic beverages.

The cases Judge Tobin described were all from towns in this area. "My problem is the sale of liquor to minors," he said. He related an incident in which beer sold to a young person had resulted in an accident in which a man, 35, and his wife, 30, were injured for life.

Judge Tobin expressed the opinion that education on the effects of alcohol would help in solving these problems.

The morning session was devoted to business matters. Mrs. Donald Mayhew of RD 1, Salem, county president, was in charge.

Mrs. Nora Pontius of Columbus, treasurer of Ohio WCTU, will be guest speaker at the annual county convention Sept. 9 in the Damascus Friends Church.

Representatives from five unions attending the picnic included Salem, Damascus, Lisbon, East Palestine and Winona. Judge Tobin and Norman Ward of Lisbon were dinner guests of the group.

Hero of Depression Era Is Retired

'Wrong Way Corrigan' Living Quiet Life of Country Squire

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP) — Twenty years ago today a pint-sized county fair daredevil named Douglas Corrigan flew a rickety ocean-banned monoplane from New York to Ireland.

The 3,150-mile flight caught the fancy of a depression-glum era and earned the brash young pilot the nickname "Wrong Way Corrigan."

"My compass froze — I guess I flew the wrong way," Corrigan — with a twinkle in his eye — blandly told authorities who had mixed the hop.

An overnight sensation, Corrigan returned to a hero's welcome in the United States and ticker-tape receptions, banquets, a movie contract — and a lifetime membership in the Celebrated Liars Club of Burlington, Wis.

Corrigan, 51 now, lives the life of a country squire with his wife and three sons on his 20-acre orange grove. He's added a few pounds, but still has the toothy Irish grin and the unruly shock of hair so familiar to newspaper readers of 1938.

And he likes nothing better than to reminisce about his flight. Corrigan earned about $85,000 from lectures, magazine articles, a book and a motion picture, "The Flying Irishman." He man-

Mr. Jones, who has been head of the North Lima schools during the last year, resigned to accept the new post which pays $8,000 a year.

Before going to North Lima he was elementary principal at Lake Milton for six years. He succeeds Ralph Dressell, who resigned to become a teacher in Austintown schools.

Mr. Jones received his education at Baldwin-Wallace College, and Youngstown University and has his home on Rt. 534 north of Berlin Center.

Mrs. Sara Baltes and daughter Katherine have returned from a week of motoring and sight-seeing in New York state.

Culture by Moonlight

By HAL BOYLE

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Culture by moonlight is becoming a bigger part of the national entertainment picture.

Outdoor summer dramas are getting to be big business.

"These big productions, live and in color, give people a feeling of opulence they are starved for," said Richard H. Berger, producer of the Starlight Theater here. "They are getting tired of sitting in their living rooms watching small-scale television."

At 5, Berger is one of the most experienced men in this form of after-dark art. Brooklyn-born, he went to the St. Louis Municipal Opera in 1936.

He left St. Louis in 1942 and produced movies in Hollywood and some of the top television shows in New York. In 1951, partly to get away from metropolitan tensions, he took over as producer of the newly built Starlight Theater in historic Swope Park.

The civic-sponsored, nonprofit theater operates on a $600,000 budget during its 12-week season. Its losses are guaranteed by some 700 business firms, but the venture has more than broken even in five of its eight seasons. "Rain is your big enemy," said Berger, "and that you can't control. It always seems to rain most of the week you've got a high-priced star sure to draw big crowds. Two or three days of rain in a week like that—and there goes your season."

"On a capacity night the St. Louis Opera and the Starlight Theater here will have a total of 20,000 customers," Berger pointed out. "That's more than attend all the theaters on Broadway in an ordinary summer week."

"Where is the theater? During the summer it isn't on Broadway. It's out here."

The shows have a six-state audience. People out here will get in their cars and drive 500 miles to see a favorite performer. Time was when the hinterland clientele was content with revivals of Victor Herbert and Gilbert and Sullivan. Today they demand and get top Broadway productions.

They also demand and get some of the leading performers in show business.

The summer theaters also are wide open to challenging new talent. The Starlight Theater this week is offering the world premiere of a new musical comedy, "Mark Twain." Drama critics from New York and Chicago flew out to cover the opening.

"It would cost perhaps $300,000 or more to put such a show on in New York," said Berger. "Here it can be done for $50,000."

Cause and Cure of Warts

Thanks to many correspondents who have written me following the publication of previous columns on warts, I now have quite a collection in my file of strange cures and other interesting comments on this peculiar disorder of the skin.

I do not doubt that there are more strange notions about the cure and cause of warts than any other human disorder.

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE to quote from all of the letters, but one man wrote that when he was 10 years old (he is now 82) his left hand was a mass of warts. A schoolmate told him to steal a piece of red flannel and a piece of raw pork, to fold the pork in the flannel and bury it in the ground under a stone.

The writer said that he did as directed and, strange to say, in three days the warts disappeared and he has had no more for the next 72 years.

Another correspondent said that he had trouble with two warts on his face and a lot under his arms and back. He asked many people for a cure, but no one seemed to know. He has asked me to suggest a remedy. This is more unusual than the first letter, because it seems nearly everyone has a pet cure for warts — and are not bashful about passing it on.

THE FACT THAT warts disappear after so many different kinds of treatment — even including the burial of an object — is particularly astonishing, because warts are almost certainly caused by viruses which are small living bodies too tiny to see under the ordinary microscope.

Why a condition caused by viruses should disappear following so many kinds of treatment (or none at all) is truly extraordinary.

The so-called "seed wart" which occurs on the hands is the most common type. Children are more likely to have warts than grown-ups.

Warts can be spread from one part of the body to another, but there is no basis for the old superstition that handling toads will cause warts.

Painting with certain dyes, several kinds of ointments, freezing with carbon dioxide snow and burning with diathermy needles have all been used with success.

ONE OF THE treatments consists of the use of injections containing a heavy metal called bismuth. Warts also disappear in most cases after X-ray treatment.

But the most astonishing treatment is by the use of suggestion. How the mind can have an effect on a virus disease is a mystery. It has long been known that warts which may have been present for years can disappear suddenly and completely following suggestion.

This has been confirmed by scientific observers. Just how to go about this kind of treatment is not settled and some doctors remain skeptical. But it seems certain that it does happen.

Warts (except plantar warts on the feet) can hardly be considered serious, but they are troublesome and peculiarly interesting in their behavior.

ASC Ballots Will Be Mailed Out On Aug. 1 to Farmers In Country

LISBON — The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee will mail out ballots Friday, Aug. 1, to eligible county farmers who will elect community ASC committee members, Earl Lora, manager of the ASC office here, reported today.

Each community will elect three committee members and two alternates. The person receiving the highest number of votes will be chairman of his community.

The 15 community chairmen will serve as delegates to the county ASC convention Monday, Aug. 25. At the convention, the community chairmen will elect a county ASC committee of three members and two alternates. The committee members chosen will take office Sept. 1, Lora said.

Additional names may be added to community ballots by petition of 10 or more eligible voters, providing petitions are presented to community chairmen by Monday, July 21.

Nominees by petition will be included on the proper ballot if they are found willing to serve and are eligible under regulations of the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture, according to E. A. Fishel, of East Rochester, county ASC chairman.

Ballots which must be returned by Friday, Aug. 8, will be counted in each community Aug. 15. The present chairmen (their names and addresses are given first) of the following communities and the nominees in each community are as follows:

Butler — Lowell J. Mountz of RD 2, Salem; Earl Bardo, Donald Coppeck, Richard Dunn, Donald Flagan, Robert Hoopes, Kenneth Howells, Harold McCrear, Richard Stamp, John Vogelhuber and Ernest Woolf.

Center — Joseph Mattevi, RD 4, Lisbon, Perry Arter, Edward Chamberlain, Paul Faulk, Carl S. Gamble, John T. Jarman, Bill W. Pittinger, George Sell, Ray D. Thomson and William W. Watkins. The entertainment committee reported that the Rita and Carmen trained monkeys with a circus wagon will be an attraction at the Peach Festival Saturday night, Aug. 9, at the Winona Playground.

Plans for building a new fire station in the near future were discussed.

There will be a practice session July 28 at the fire station.

sibly three foreign languages will be offered if there is sufficient demand.

"We probably will have one of the richest language curricula in this part of the country," Supt. Kerr said. "For example, already Latin, German, Spanish and French. Even during World War II, German was taught despite a vogue then to drop it."

A course in electronics will be taught in the 1959-60 school year. Requirements for the course will be three years of mathematics and one of physics. A number of this coming year's juniors have elected physics in order to be eligible Mr. Kerr said.

Also in the 1958-59 school term, three years of metal work will be given. Two years of metal work were offered last year. The third year of woodworking was added in 1957-58.

A third year of both commercial training and home economics will be offered starting this fall. The commercial course will be called secretarial science.

Pupil Enrollment

According to a June survey by Deane Phillips, attendance officer, 3,965 students, or 205 more than last year's total of 3,760, will attend city public schools during the 1958-59 term. The largest increase has been at Reilly and Prospect schools.

A total of about 750 students — 17 higher than the 1957-58 school year — will be on hand in grades 10-12 in September. Enrollment at the junior high (old high school) this fall will approach 700, about the same as last year.

Pupils won't have to walk up as many stairs next term. Nine classrooms are on the second floor and rest are on the first floor.

Salem's new high school will be one of the most modern educational institutions of its kind in Ohio. The city school district taxpayers have repeatedly supported bond issues to put their entire system on par with the best in the state, the superintendent points out.

The "tab" for the new high school and the equipment in it is estimated at $2,585,000. Most of the equipment is new. Incidentally, the school board omitted four classrooms and the auditorium because it lacked funds to include them in the original plans, but built a spacious gymnasium which will seat 2,400 spectators.

The price tag for the deleted classrooms would have been $73,000. The auditorium had been pegged at $500,000.

Injured E. Palestine

Player Hospitalized

EAST PALESTINE — Dale Lane, 17, son of Mrs. Meredith Lane of Leake St., has been admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital in Youngstown after X-rays showed the youth suffered a fractured cheek bone in a collision during a Hot Stove League baseball game Tuesday night.

Lane, a catcher, was hurt when he collided with Keith Claypool, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Claypool of Alice St. while chasing a fly ball. Claypool is a first baseman.

Lane broke his glasses in the collision. Claypool suffered cuts about the face and was treated by a physician.

Eskimos in Alaska have a popular sport called "nalakutuk," or "blanket tossing." A tough walrus skin is used for the blanket, and the contestant is tossed high in the air. The winner is the one who can land and stay on his feet.

Sharon Cleaning Up

As Flood Recedes

SHARON, Pa. (AP) — A mammoth cleanup job began today in this industrial city of 30,000 in the wake of the worst flood in 45 years.

The rain-swollen Shenango River dropped slowly as the mop-up operation began.

Unofficial damage estimates from the surging waters which made the downtown area look like Venice ranged from 2 to 3 million dollars.

Rep. Carroll Kearns (R) planned an aerial inspection of the area today.

The waters flooded the entire downtown section, including City Hall. Nearly 100 families were forced to evacuate their homes in the residential North Flats section.

The Shenango crested Wednesday afternoon at 16.75 feet—more than five feet above flood stage. Early today the river was at the 15.3-foot level and receding at the rate of about two inches an hour.

Downstream at New Castle, Pa., the River rose slowly and flooded some residential areas in low lying sections. However, a police department spokesman said no major flooding was anticipated.

Tito Has Recognized

Iraqi Rebel Regime

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — President Tito's government announced today that Yugoslavia has recognized the rebel government in Iraq and plans to set up normal diplomatic relations between the two countries.

Tito, who was conferring with President Nasser of the United Arab Republic when the pro-Nasser revolt broke out, cabled the new Iraqi Premier that all peoples have the right to decide on their own social system.

Yugoslavia's Communist regime and the Iraqi monarchy did not have diplomatic relations.

Americans in Damascus

Urged to Evacuate

DAMASCUS (AP) — The U.S. consulate in Damascus has urged all American tourists in the Syrian capital to get out of the Middle East.

They were also warned to avoid crowds.

There was no perceptible evidence in Damascus of any ill-feeling toward individual Americans, but newspapers and the government radio have been bitterly criticizing what they call "the flagrant aggression" of the United States in neighboring Lebanon.

About 75 Americans live in Damascus. Most of them are diplomats and businessmen and their families.

Rt. 62 Repaving Bids

To Be Opened July 22

Contractors' bids will be opened July 22 for the repaving of 5.6 miles of Rt. 62 between Salem and Westville, the Ohio Department of Highways announced today. The estimated cost is $6,500.

The project will be partially financed by the 1958 Federal Emergency Highway Program and will be part of 74 miles of highway paving throughout 71 Ohio counties at a total estimated cost of $831,000.

for one more year. Lunches will be brought over from the Maple Ridge School cafeteria under the same plan as used last year.

Mrs. Rhea Emmons clerk of the board, received a salary increase of $300 per year. The secretarial and custodian staffs also received salary hikes ranging from $50 to $200 per year.

Lester Morrow of Sebring was hired at $5,000 per year to serve as the full-time bus mechanic.

The principals, Donald Wise, Harold Morrow and Clinton Heacock (John Pickens is on vacation in Europe), who are now acting as joint administrative heads of the Mahoning Local School District, reported to the board that the repair and improvement program in each of the schools is nearing completion.

Dale Schoeni, vice president of the board, conducted last night's meeting in the absence of the president, Norman Barnett, who is also on vacation in Europe.

The board will have a special meeting on July 23 to study the questionnaires that were sent to six architects, one of which the board will employ to handle the new building program.

the 14 countries staffing the 135-man observer corps to pull out their men.

The United States has asked for a U. N. police force to guard Lebanon's borders and has promised to withdraw the Marines if an international force is set up.

The Russians have asked the Council to order the Marines out of Lebanon at once. Their resolution lacks the votes to pass the 11-nation body.

Although Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld appeared noticeably cool to the U. S. decision to send troops to Lebanon, he did not oppose it as strongly as Jarring and expressed hope the observer group would "retain its key position."

He reported the observers had succeeded in arranging with the rebels for inspection of the entire border area — without help from the Marines.

7 County Men to Face

Service Call In August

LISBON — Seven Columbiana County men will be inducted into the armed forces in August, it was announced today by Mrs. Elaine Griffith, clerk of Draft Board No. 16.

The group will leave Lisbon on Monday, Aug. 4. The board has not received pre-induction physical calls as yet, Mrs. Griffith said.

Troops

over-all U.S. military commander in Beirut, reported excellent cooperation after talking with President Camille Chamoun and Premier Sami Solh. Chamoun asked Monday that U.S. forces be sent to his country after the Iraqi revolt indicated a threat of increased U.A.R. interference in the 6-day revolt against his government.

Avoid Moslem Sector

The Marines avoided the rebel-held Moslem section of Beirut. Rebel leader Saeb Salam was quoted by Damascus radio as pledging a fight to the end to drive out the Marines and said he would seek aid "from any source."

Debate continued in the U.N. Security Council on rival American and Soviet resolutions with both facing defeat. The American proposal, to send a U.N. emergency force of troops to Lebanon to relieve the Marines, was certain of getting a Soviet veto. The Soviet demand for immediate withdrawal of the Americans from Lebanon had no chance of mustering the seven votes necessary for adoption.

Cause Damaged

The U.S. cause was damaged, however, by Swedish opposition to the Lebanese landing. Sweden's delegate was reported planning to introduce at the Council meeting this afternoon a resolution calling for suspension of the work of the U.N. observer group the Council sent to Lebanon to check on alleged interference from Syria.

The Swedish idea was to express U.N. displeasure that the United States had stepped in and in effect taken the initiative away from the U.N. Diplomatic sources said the United States feared that such a resolution, while it would be defeated, would cause some of the 14 nations with observers in Lebanon to withdraw their representatives and thus damage the appearance of U.N. backing for Chamoun's regime.

Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld in effect joined the critics of the U.S. action, announcing to the Council that the observer team had arranged with the rebels to check the Syrian border and thus could now detect any foreign Arab intervention.

The observers, meanwhile, refused to have anything to do with the American forces in Lebanon and insisted on acting independently of them.

East Palestine Board

Accepting Coal Bids

The East Palestine board of education will accept bids until noon Aug. 4 for supplying city schools with coal from Sept. 1 to May 31, 1959.

The Francis Coal Co. of Darlington, Pa., currently has the contract. Present prices being paid are $6.35 per ton for stoker coal, $5.75 per ton for run-of-mine coal and $6.75 per ton for two-by-four egg coal.

The contract will be let at the board's regular monthly meeting Aug. 4.

MEETING SITE CHANGED

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Winona-Butler Township Fire Department will meet in the home of Mrs. William Heacock Monday evening instead of at the Playground as previously announced.

Bayard Grange Beats Herrons 8-2

Tolsons Whip Old Dutch 5-1

Christian Church, Furnace Also Win

Scoring four times in the first frame and then adding three more in the sixth and one in the seventh, Bayard Grange went on to roll over Herron Transfer 8-2 in a single Class AA endeavor at Kelly Field Wednesday night.

In a trio of Class A clashes, Tolsons defeated Old Dutch 5-1, Christian Church edged Bliss 8-1 and the Columbiana Merchants nipped Electric Furnace 9-8 with a tally in the bottom of the seventh.

Herrons got only three hits off Bayard's Bill Ehrhart. Lee Haynam's three raps paced the winners. Benny Roelen was the loser.

Old Dutch had seven safeties as did Tolsons but the winners made their raps go further in their conquest.

Jim "Pigeon" Foreman had two hits for the winners including a mighty triple into the right field corner. Jim Warrington also had a brace of singles for Tolsons.

Second sacker Marty Limpose paced his aggregation with two singles.

Gerry Fowler got the win while Bill Panzott was handed the defeat.

Olan Sanor pitched seven-hit ball as his team won over Bliss. Harvey Campbell had two hits for the Christians while Joe Winkler hit safely three times for the losers. Bill Kyser got tagged with the loss.

Columbiana blew a 7-0 lead but still scored once in the bottom of the seventh to pick up a 9-8 decision.

Furnace had scored five times in the top of the last frame to knot the count at 8-8.

Lee Utterback and Chuck Wittington both had two singles for the winners while Skip Yeager and Bill Shuster each had two raps for the losers. Shuster was the losing chucker and Gene Logue the winner.

Hot Stove League Games

Knights, Endres, Bliss Win; Eljer, Select, B&Z Victors

Endres & Gross defeated Home Furniture 10-3 and Select Dairies whitewashed Merchants Vending 5-0 in two Hot Stove League games played this week at Memorial Park.

In other games, Eljer notched its 12th straight victory with a 4-2 nod over Youngstown Kitchens and Bliss beat Deming's 10-6. Knights of Columbus edged the Eagles 3-2 and Brown and Ziegler eked out a 12-11 win over Bricker and Bricker.

The Home Furniture-E&G game was a low-hit affair. The winners collected three safeties compared to just one hit for E&G.

Endres and Gross scored four runs in both the first and second innings and one in both the third and fourth frames. Home Furniture's three tallies came in the fourth inning. Both teams played errorless ball.

Select Dairies took a four-run lead in the first canto and added another marker in the third stanza in its 5-0 win over the Merchants. Hits were scarce, the winners getting two and the losers one. Neither team made a miscue.

Youngstown Kitchens bowed to Eljer the third straight time this season in absorbing its 4-2 loss. Gary Jeffries was the winning hurler but needed help from "Rich" Sweitzer in the fifth inning when the Kitchens loaded the bases with nobody out. The Kitchens had scored only one run when the frame ended.

Joe Kozar was the losing pitcher. Jim Anderson had two hits for Eljer, while Roger DeCrow led Kitchens with two safeties. The win gives Eljer a three-game lead with only three more to play.

K. of C. defeated the Eagles 3-2 in a pitchers' duel. The win put K. of C. in undisputed third place.

The big hit of the game was Jim Taus' triple that drove in two runs for K. of C. Winning pitcher was Jim Lantz. Tom Bauman, the loser, allowed only one hit but walks and an error brought in the other runs.

Brown & Ziegler had to come from behind to eke out a 12-11 win over Bricker & Bricker.

Charles Heineman homered and Alan Phillips tripled for the winners. Kurt Ritchie had Bricker & Bricker's only extra-base hit — a triple. Winning hurler was Dick Wilt although he had help from Raymond Beech.

Deming's was ahead 2-0 at the end of six innings, and, following Bliss' five-run rally in the top of the seventh, tied the game at 5-5 in the bottom half of the canto with three markers.

However, Bliss came back with five more runs in the eighth inning to sew up the tilt. Deming's added its final run in the last of the eighth.

Bliss outlasted Deming's 9-7 and had four errors, two more than the Pumpers.

Don Davidson was winning hurler. Fred Kaiser and "Buzzie" Snyder got two hits for Bliss. But the big blow of the game for Bliss was Dick Loudon's grand-slam homer.

John Panzott paced Deming's with three hits. Don Wukotich also had a homer for the losers.

Major League Stars

By The Associated Press
Hitting—Roy Sievers, Senators, belted a pair of two-run homers, the second a two-out shot that capped a four-run ninth that beat the Indians 7-6.

Pitching — Glen Hobbie, Don Eiston, Cubs, shut out the Redlegs without a hit in a joint relief job that covered 5 2-3 innings in first game of 5-4 and 7-5 double-header sweep.

TEBBETTS LOSES TWICE

CHICAGO (AP) — Wednesday just wasn't Birdie Tebbetts' day. The Cincinnati Redlegs manager reported to police that someone stole $1,200 in cash and jewelry from his hotel suite while he and his wife were sleeping. Then to top things off his Redlegs dropped a doubleheader to the Chicago Cubs.

Four Sluggers Battling For American League HR Crown

By The Associated Press

The only race worth mentioning in the American League is the chase for the home run crown, and it's a pip.

There's only a four-homer gap between Boston's Jackie Jensen, the leader with 27, and defending champ Roy Sievers of Washington and early leader Bob Cerv of Kansas City, tied with 23. Mickey Mantle of New York, the hottest of 'em all, is in between with 24.

For the record, they're all behind Babe Ruth's record 60 paces of 1927. He had 30 at about this stage.

Cerv, banged up with a broken jaw, broken toe and bruised hand of late, led the pack with 14 at the end of May, but has hit only 9 since. Jensen has hit 18 since May, taking the lead with 14 in June. Mantle has hit 20 since May, swatting 10 in 18 games this month. Sievers has hit 16 since May, 5 this month and 3 in two days to overhaul Cerv.

Sievers, who led with 42 last season, ripped a pair of two-run shots Wednesday night, the second a two-out drive that capped a four-run ninth as the Senators beat Cleveland 7-6.

The other sluggers failed to hit one as the Yankees defeated Detroit 3-2 on Bob Turley's three-hitter, Boston beat Kansas City 5-2 and Baltimore split a twin-night pair with Chicago, winning 6-5 after a 6-1 White Sox victory.

In the National League, Milwaukee retained a half-game edge with a 6-5 victory at St. Louis after second-place San Francisco had whipped Philadelphia 9-2. Chicago's third-place Cubs swept Cincinnati 5-4 and 7-5. Pittsburgh defeated Los Angeles 7-4.

Turley won his 14th on a three-run, fourth-inning homer by Jerry Lumpe. Jim Bunning beat Turley in a strikeout duel but lost his sixth. He fanned 10.

Turley, who gave up a two-run homer to Frank Bolling in the second inning, struck out nine and became the first AL pitcher to top 100. He has 106.

Ike Delock eeded relief help, but won his 12th in a row, ninth this season, for the Red Sox. Little Murry Dickson had 'em blanked on one hit until a four-run sixth capped by Jensen's two-run double.

Southpaw Jack Harshman (7-7) drove in four runs with a pair of homers while beating Chicago with a nine-hitter, shutting out his ex-mates without a hit after the fifth inning. The other Oriole nightcap runs came in on Gene Woodling's seventh home run as Bob Keegan (0-2) lost in relief. Dick Donovan (5-10) won the opener. Milt Pappas lost it in a two-run second on RBI singles by Billy Goodman and Nellie Fox.

The Senators, given a 3-1 lead on Sievers' first homer, finally nailed it against Mossi and loser Ray Narleski (10-7). Dick Hyde (6-2) won it in relief.

In the national elections in Sweden in June, Communists did not electioneer in several districts in which they had been previously active.

Braves Maintain Lead With 6-5 Victory Over Cardinals

By The Associated Press

Who's going to crack first in the National League race? While three of the so-called contenders faded away, Milwaukee and San Francisco are stepping along just half a game apart, and the suddenly competitive Chicago Cubs are at their heels.

The Braves kept that half-game edge with a 6-5 decision at St. Louis Wednesday night after blowing a 4-0 lead. Just .008 percentage points behind are the Giants, who whipped Philadelphia's fizzling Phillies 9-2.

The Cubs kept their third-place perch, 2½ games behind Milwaukee, by running up a five-game streak for the first time this season, sweeping their second doubleheader in four days with comeback 5-4 and 7-5 decisions over Cincinnati.

That gave the Redlegs a seven-game losing string, and they escaped the cellar only because of Pittsburgh's 7-4 victory over Los Angeles.

In the American League first-place New York defeated Detroit 3-2. Second-place Boston, 12 games behind, beat Kansas City 5-2. Baltimore split a two-night pair with Chicago, winning 6-5 after a 6-1 White Sox victory. And Washington clipped Cleveland 7-6 as Roy Sievers' second two-run homer of the game capped a four-run ninth.

Solo homers by Hank Aaron and Eddie Mathews, who hit a pair, gave it to the Braves in the fifth against reliever Chuck Stobbs (0-2). Mathews' first homer and Billy Bruton's first of the season helped Warren Spahn to a 4-0 lead, but the Cardinals took over with a five-run third capped by Ken Boyer's grand-slam.

Spahn, now 11-6, needed more help after the fifth. He got it from reliever Don MacMahon, who came on with the bases loaded in the eighth, and left fielder Andy Pafko, who made a diving catch of Don Blasingame long liner to end the eighth.

Things were easier for the Giants. They counted four runs in the second, three of them unearned. Jolinnny Antonelli, who hit a two-run triple in the deciding second, won his 10th with a nine-hitter and had the Phils blanked until the seventh. Willie Mays cracked his slump, getting three hits for the first time since June 6, one a two-run double. Jack Sanford (6-3) lost his third in a row.

The Cubs, held to four hits for eight innings, won the opener with four consecutive hits off Harvey Haddix and loser Hal Jeffcoat in a three-run ninth inning. Bobby Thomson's two-run double put it away. Relievers Glen Hobbie and Don Elston didn't give the Reds a hit over the last 5 2-3 innings with Elston (7-5) winning his first since May 30.

In the nightcap, the Reds made 9 of their 11 hits good for extra bases, with Pete Whisenant hitting two solo homers. But the Cubs busted through with three in the eighth. Winning reliever Bill Henry singling home the winning run and Tony Taylor's single counting an insurance marker. Brooks Lawrence (6-7), who also gave up Ernie Banks' two-run 24th homer, lost his third in a row.

The Pirates took over fifth place as Hank Foiles clouted a three-run homer. Bill Mazeroski and Frank Thomas added solo shots. Bob Friend won his 11th.

Reciprocal Trade Supporters Nearing Extension Agreement

WASHINGTON (AP) — Backers of reciprocal trade appeared ready to accept a three-year extension in the Senate and try for more in a conference with the House.

This was one of several points of strategy considered in an effort to win passage of a bill meeting most of President Eisenhower's requests. The House has voted a five-year extension of the program, as Eisenhower asked. Other Senate show-downs also may be avoided as part of the same strategy.

Behind-the-scenes strategy being worked out by Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.), Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.), floor manager for the bill, and Republican Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.) called for only one major floor amendment before final passage. The plans were understood to cover these points:

1. A floor vote to knock out of the bill a provision inserted by the Senate Finance Committee sharply curbing the President's powers to operate the trade program.

2. No roll call vote on the Senate floor on the length of extension of the act, leaving Senate-House conferees free to accept the five years voted by the House by the Finance committee. The Senate conferees might agree to five years in return for House acceptance of a Senate provision to give more industries tariff relief under the national security section of the trade law.

3. A conference agreement to knock out or modify a Senate provision which would limit to 5 percent the permitted tariff cut in any one year. The House bill would permit a 10 percent reduction.

A key point in this strategy was an effort to persuade strong advocates of the trade program not to seek a record vote on a five-year extension. Some leaders feared this would disclose heavy Senate sentiment for a shorter period and thus tie the hands of the Senate conferees.

Wollam Says Release Will Require Week

GUANTANAMO, Cuba (AP) — U.S. Consul Park Wollam sent word Wednesday night that it may be a week more before Fidel Castro's rebels release all the U. S. servicemen they kidnapped.

The rebels' idea apparently is to keep Cuban government forces from launching a full-scale attack on their mountain hideouts for as long as possible.

Four more servicemen were returned to the Guantanamo naval base Wednesday by U.S. Navy helicopter after spending 20 days in rebel camps in the mountains of east Cuba. Eighteen sailors and Marines remained behind.

Wollam, who has spent three weeks dickering for the prisoners' release, said the whole operation might take from four days to a week with the men probably continuing to come out in small batches.

The latest four men freed were Lawrence E. Jamison, 21, Bradford, Pa.; Angelo Mpazicos, 20, the Bronx, N.Y.; Michael P. McArdle, 18, New York City; and Hal C. Worrall, 18, Marysville, Ind. Worrall is a Marine; the rest are Navy men.

Labor Bill

By JAMES P. MITCHELL

Victor Riesel is in Europe. Today his guest columnist is Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell.

WASHINGTON
It is now up to the House of Representatives whether a labor reform bill is passed into law before Congress adjourns and the opportunity to act on the bill passed by the Senate is lost.

No issue is closer to the national interest than this. The need for effective and moderate new laws is clear from the standpoint of the interest of the American public as well as those of labor and management.

In its original form, the Senate bill was a less effective and comprehensive version of the proposal submitted to Congress by President Eisenhower last January, over six months ago.

After I objected to the weakness and shortcomings of the Senate bill, many amendments were adopted to strengthen it.

These amendments, almost all of them based on the President's original proposal, did much to improve the Senate bill.

But the Labor-Management Relations bill passed by the Senate is still far short of the ideal set by the President's program. It is incorporated some of the features of the administration proposals—but left some others, and very important ones, out.

IT IS MY CONVICTION that only the President's program provides the best answers to current problems rising out of labor racketeering.

As the House begins to consider labor legislation, therefore, the administration will be urging that the President's program be given top priority.

The position of the Eisenhower administration on labor legislation is clear. The administration wants a bill that will protect the interests of the public and provide labor and management with strong legislative help in their own efforts to operate honestly and effectively.

The administration is working for a bill that will protect the rights of working men and women without crippling their unions by excessive government control, because it believes that unions are indispensable to the economic health and social progress of the United States.

At the same time we want to protect employers and the public from coercion and racketeering in the guise of trade unionism.

Nothing in the President's program would diminish the rights of unions under the law. The President's program is aimed at helping unions and their members, and management and the public to see to it that crooks and racketeers will never again prey on the high reputation of the American labor movement.

BOTH LABOR and management need the help of wise and effective new laws that will help unions to safeguard their members' funds and keep them free from the dictatorial control of gangsters like Johnny Dio and weak and dishonest men like Dave Beck.

These laws are demanded by the public interest. Lawlessness anywhere is a threat to the welfare of our whole society.

The public has a right to demand upright conduct of labor and management precisely because these two forces are so important to the national good.

The administration labor program will, if it is passed by Congress, do this job better than any other bill which has yet been presented to Congress.

The administration program is stronger than the Senate bill, for example, in many important respects. It covers many areas which are not covered by the Senate bill, and it covers many other areas more thoroughly than the Senate bill.

The administration program provides: More thorough reports on union financial affairs.

More effective controls on bribery and extortion. Stronger control of "conflict-of-interests" situations.

More complete union financial books and records.

Stronger enforcement powers to the secretary of labor. Stronger penalties for violations of the law.

THE ADMINISTRATION program also provides several important safeguards for businesses and the public which were left out of the Kennedy-Ives bill.

Among these is a provision to limit the use of secondary boycotts, which often impose unfair penalties on firms and individuals who are not directly involved in labor disputes.

Another of the President's proposals would ban certain types of picketing which tends to "black-mail" employers and their employees into accepting a union which neither wants.

Effective measures such as these are needed. The labor movement must have the help of better and stronger laws in order to carry forward its work to clean its ranks of corruption.

The President's program would give union members the backing of federal law in keeping their unions honest and strong.

No honest union leader — and the honest ones are in the vast majority — objects to operating in the open. The intent of the President's program is to bring the dishonest ones out into the open so that they can be exposed, expelled and prosecuted.

The union members of this country and their friends are looking to the House of Representatives for passage of a labor reform bill that will protect the rights of unions and the welfare of the public.

The administration and men and women of good will and moderation in both parties will be working in the days ahead for just such a bill.

Courageous British Governor Seeks Confidence of Islanders

High Foot Steps Lively on Cyprus

By TOM A. CULLEN
NEA Staff Correspondent
LONDON — (NEA) — As governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Macintosh Foot makes a point of strolling unarmed along Nicosia's "Murder Mile," so named for the frequency of terrorist killings along this crowded strip through the island's capital city.

Sir Hugh, who is 50 and has the shoulders of a lion, is apt to stop at the exact spot where a British civilian was shot down by Cypriot gunmen, or to enter a wine shop that once served as an ambush.

In doing so, Sir Hugh is not deliberately courting his own death. It is part of his campaign to establish confidence in himself as governor, and confidence in British intentions towards Cyprus. It is his way of showing Cypriots that he comes to them as a friend.

In the six months since his appointment as governor, Foot has already built up an enviable record.

HE HAS LAID ASIDE the protocol and white gloves of office to meet Cypriot mayors informally over a glass of sherry. He has released over 100 political prisoners.

He has urged the 30,000 British troops stationed in Cyprus to work for "positive friendship" with Greek-Cypriot and Turkish-Cypriot alike.

Finally, he has made a standing offer to meet Col. George Grivas, the elusive chief of the Greek-Cypriot terrorist group, EOKA. Foot has offered to go alone and unarmed to meet Grivas at a time and place of the latter's own choosing. Furthermore, he has promised Grivas immunity from arrest during the pow-wow.

Foot explains his offer quite simply. "I will do anything to prevent further bloodshed and violence in Cyprus."

THESE ARE NOT the traditional methods of the British Colonial Office. But they are getting results.

They explain partly why the eastern Mediterranean island at this moment is not torn by bitter civil war between Greek-Cypriot and Turkish-Cypriot.

The conditions are ripe for civil war. The Greeks hold out stubbornly for "enosis," or union of Cyprus with Greece, while the Turks doggedly stick to their demand for partition of the island into two communities.

Both Ankara and Athens have rejected the latest British proposals to share in the responsibility for governing Cyprus, but both governments have been careful to leave the door open for future negotiations.

BRITISH GOVERNOR Sir Hugh Foot leads a party of newsmen on one of his periodic walking tours on the troubled island of Cyprus.

In the uneasy truce that prevails in Nicosia, Sir Hugh goes about his business calmly, inspiring others with his self-confidence and energy.

As a gauge of how far the British have come in softening their attitude towards Cypriot self-determination demands, one only has to compare Foot, the genial, pipe-smoking civil servant, to Sir John Harding, the blunt field marshal who preceded him as governor.

Harding never set foot in Nicosia's streets without an armored car escort, and for good reason: EOKA terrorists had set a price on his head. Foot toured Cyprus on horseback during his first four weeks as governor.

Nor was Sir Hugh afraid to install his wife and eight-year-old son in the governor's mansion.

THE SHORT, STOCKY Sir Hugh

family pursuits of law and politics."

He was, however, the only one of the five brothers to win a university scholarship, reading law at Cambridge. Foot volunteered as a rifleman in Palestine during the Arab revolts, later became a district officer there, learned Arabic and acquired a deep sympathy for Arab nationalist aims. He also served in Jordan, Syria and Lebanon.

As acting governor of Nigeria in 1950, Sir Hugh helped to frame a Nigerian constitution along liberal lines. As governor of Jamaica in 1951, he acted as mid-wife for the West Indies Federation.

"HUGH FOOT," The Observer wrote following his appointment to Cyprus last December, "comes to Cyprus rich in experience and with just the right qualities to enable the island to make a fresh start."

But perhaps a more valued tribute comes from a colleague in the Colonial Office.

"If guts alone could solve the Cyprus problem, Hugh Foot would have solved it six months ago."

Social Security May Offer More Benefits

WASHINGTON (AP) — An increase in old age Social Security benefits, together with a hike in the payroll tax, moved today toward approval by the House Ways and Means Committee.

It would mean an addition of 10 per cent, or a minimum of $5, to present Social Security pension checks under proposals now reportedly favored by committee members.

The boost appeared certain to get quick approval by House and Senate. It would be in line with an election-year pattern that has produced faster pension checks for the old folks every two years since 1952.

SAW-OUT EVIDENCE

BALTIMORE (AP) — Police Sgt. Joseph E. Judd and two other cops used a saw to get their evidence into court for a numbers case. The evidence—three numbers—was on a board attached to a wall in the news stand and shoe repair shop run by the defendant. The magistrate held defendant Vernie Brunson, 52, for grand jury action.

CANCEL CONTRACT

VERNON, Conn. (AP) — Town fathers canceled a beerdrinking contest planned for the community's upcoming 150th anniversary celebration when too many persons said their employees threatened to fire them if they grew whiskers.

BRIDE OF TWO WEEKS DROWNS — Mrs. Edna Mae Taylor, 17, of Bayonne, N.J., a bride of two weeks, drowned in a pond at Union Beach, N.J., when she slipped into deep water after falling from a float. Here, her husband, Bobby, 24, left, kneels at her side as rescuers fail in revival attempt.

Architects Designing Garages To Serve As Storage Places

Although garages were originally designed and built as shelters for the products of Detroit, homeowners quickly found them useful for everything under the sun, and soon had them looking like an outside addition to Fibber McGee's famed closet.

Everything from steamer trunks and Christmas tree decorations to the garden hose was dumped in the garage, and, as often as not, the whole thing ended with the garage in a mess and the old bus being left out in the cold.

Homeowners still think the garage is the greatest storage place on the lot, but architects are a jump ahead of them these days, but they are designing carports built to take it. Whole walls of the carport are fitted with built-in cabinets and shelving to provide housing for garden tools and the kids' bicycles.

Sometimes free-standing cabinets specifically designed for sporting equipment, are provided and serve double duty as half-wall dividers. There are even ingenious house-holders who hang cabinets which are built to fit over the hood of the car so that every inch of potential storage space is utilized. These can readily be built of easy-to-work softwoods. Of course, the main idea is to keep storage neat, in place, and to leave ample room for the family cars.

The modern carport has become quite palatial looking, too. Builders and homeowners alike have found that a carport can add a great deal of curb appeal to a home, and design for this member of the house is given as much consideration as the parlor.

Gone is the dark, dank interior of the early garage, and in its place are handsome, bright walls. One popular ruse employed to embellish this utilitarian area is to bring the siding of the house into the carport as wall paneling, and tongue-and-groove boards of rough-sawn west coast hemlock are an especial favorite because of hemlock's clean, sunny coloring and easy upkeep.

Giant fir beams, used for the roof support of the main house, are continued through the walls to support the carport roof, and even ceiling decking, a luxury touch in a house interior, is used in the carport and prized for its low upkeep and sleek appearance.

At the end of the carport opposite the car entrance, a decorative screen is often installed in lieu of a solid wall. This is done to keep the carport as light and airy as possible, yet put a finishing touch to this end. One eye-catching effect can be gotten using 1x1 inch strips-spaced an inch apart and installed vertically in square frames. Frames of staggered heights help to avoid a static look.

As a contrast to the natural coloring of the woods used in the carport interior and the siding, the screen can be painted a gay, impelling color like larkspur or peacock green.

ASSUMES COMMAND

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Brig. Gen. Bruce D. Rindlaub has assumed command of the Army Engineer Maintenance Center here. He succeeds Brig. Gen. W. W. Lapsley, who has been assigned as Ohio River division engineer, with headquarters in Cincinnati. Before being assigned here, Gen. Rindlaub was commander of the 7th Engineer Brigade in Europe.

WIND IS CULPRIT

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — About 200 car owners got pretty sore when painters spraying a warehouse with aluminum paint got careless about the wind. The result: A silver cloud that left it's lining on cars in a next-door parking lot. Special paint-removing crews restored the original colors.

Household Hints

Take all precautions when storing woollens during summer months. One of the most important is to store clean garments because a neat bathroom with children in the family is a rarity. But some simple tricks keep items like towels and washcloths straight and off the floor. Snap-fasten ordinary towels together and hang them over a low bar for the little children to use. This also encourages handwashing.

Freeze Pineapple Cakes

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

It's fun to achieve a goal with a recipe. We like the pineapple upsidedown cake put up by a well-known food organization that has a chain of restaurants featuring American-type food. Their dessert has excellent texture and flavor, comes in baked frozen form so that it needs only reheating, is packed in small foil pans and makes two generous portions.

With this dessert as a model, we worked out our own recipe so that the cake could be made at home and put in the freezer, ready for unexpected company. Naturally this dessert is less expensive when it is made at home than when it is bought and this recipe produces a reasonable facsimile of the original readybaked frozen dessert. So if you have more time than money, you might like to try this recipe.

We saved the small foil pans that many readycooked frozen foods come in to use for this home baking. The pans stand up remarkably well — we have used ours many times.

One of the features of these small pans is that they hold exactly two slices of pineapple (from a one-pound and four-ounce can) so the cake may be cut into two attractive portions with a pineapple ring atop each. These servings are large, however, so the cake may be cut to serve three or four. The cake batter we are giving you makes enough topping for four of the pans; you'll have the pineapple syrup and two slices leftover.

Small Pineapple Upsidedown Cakes
Ingredients: 1 can (1 pound and 4 ounces) sliced pineapple, 4 tablespoons butter, ½ cup firmly-packed dark brown sugar, 1 teaspoon Angosture bitters, 1½ cups sifted cake flour, 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ cup butter or margarine, ¼ cup granulated sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 large egg, ½ cup milk, 4 or 8 maraschino cherries (drained).

Method: Turn pineapple into a strainer to drain well. Put 1 tablespoon butter into each of 4 small foil baking pans (6 by 4 inches across top and 1½ inches deep); place over very low heat until the butter melts; remove from heat with tongs or pot holder.

Put 2 tablespoons dark brown sugar and ¼ teaspoon bitters in each pan; mix well and spread evenly. Sift together the cake flour, baking powder and salt. Cream ¼ cup butter, the granulated sugar and vanilla together with electric mixer; beat in egg thoroughly. Stir in sifted dry ingredients in four additions alternately with milk; begin and end with the flour.

Turn the batter over the four prepared pans; there will be about ½ cup batter for each pan. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 25 to 30 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean and tops are lightly browned.

If desserts are to be served at once, run a spatula around the sides of cake to loosen and turn out on flat surface. Insert a half or a whole maraschino cherry in center of each pineapple ring.

If desserts are not to be served at once, place pans on a cake rack to cool. Cover tops with foil and store in refrigerator or freezer. To reheat place desserts in pans, uncovered, in hot (425 degrees) oven for 10 minutes or until hot through, then remove as previously directed. If a little of the brown sugar mixture sticks to the pan on removal, scrape up with a small spatula and spread on pineapple. Makes 8 large servings. If desired, the desserts may be topped with whipped cream.

Celery Sophia

Ingredients: 1 cup finely ground cooked ham, ½ cup old-fashioned cooked dressing, 1 tablespoon sweet pickle relish, cleaned dry celery stalks, paprika.

Method: Mix together well the ham, dressing and pickle relish. Fill celery stalks with mixture; if desired cut in wedges. Sprinkle with paprika.

FIRST POLIO CASE

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 30-year-old woman has become Cleveland's first polio case of the 1958 season. She had not received the Salk anti-polio shots. The woman was taken to University Hospitals suffering from paralytic polio.

Salmon Loaf

Flake and remove bones from two 1-pound cans salmon. Blend in 1 cup fine dry bread crumbs, 4 eggs, 2 teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper, 2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice, 1 teaspoon crumbled whole basil leaves and ½ teaspoon crumbled whole thyme leaves. Melt 2 tablespoons butter or margarine and blend in 2 tablespoons flour. Stir in 1 cup tomato juice and cook, stirring constantly, until of medium thickness.

Combine with salmon mixture. Turn into a well-greased 9x5x3-inch loaf pan. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 35-45 minutes or till done. Serve hot with Herbed Tomato Sauce (6 servings).

Herbed Tomato Sauce (1 cup)
Combine an 8-ounce can tomato sauce with ¼ teaspoon crumbled whole oregano leaves, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper and ½ teaspoon garlic powder. Cook 8-10 minutes. Serve hot over salmon loaf.

Peche Melba, A Delicious, Easy Dessert

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Thank an opera star of yesterday for inspiring this superb dessert.

Double pleasure is yours if you try the recipe. You learn to prepare one of the world's great dishes. It is sure to please every guest. We've never known anyone to turn up his nose — be it critical, finicky or epicurean — at this offering.

No complicated procedure here. No hard-to-find ingredients to trouble a cook. All that's needed are fresh ripe peaches and raspberries, vanilla and ice cream. Do you enjoy being a calm and collected hostess? We've made the dessert a couple of days before it was served, refrigerated it and found it perfect.

Peche Melba is the name of this delightful dish, our recipe sticking close to the original created by culinary genius Georges Auguste Escoffier. This is how he happened to do so.

Toward the end of the last century, Escoffier was working in London. One evening he went to hear Dame Nellie Melba, the great Australian opera singer, who was appearing at Covent Garden in Lohengrin. The Master Chef was enthralled. When Melba gave a dinner party at the Savoy Hotel, whose kitchens Escoffier headed, the first version of Peche Melba was born.

For the dessert that night, Escoffier topped vanilla ice cream with peaches poached in vanilla syrup, and arranged the two in a silver container between the wings of a swan carved out of ice. This was to recall, of course, a famous scene in Lohengrin.

When Escoffier helped Cesar Ritz open London's Hotel Carlton, the chef remembered how enthusiastic Madame Melba had been about his simple combination. Now he added the last touch — a sauce of fresh raspberries to give ruby-red color and truly distinguished flavor.

These days Peche Melba is served in fine restaurants. You may want to add it to your own repertoire.

Peche Melba

Ingredients: 1 cup sugar, 1 cup water, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 6 medium-sized ripe free-stone peaches, 1 pint basket ripe raspberries, 1-3 cup sugar, 1 quart firm vanilla ice cream.

Method: Put the sugar, water and salt in a 1-quart saucepan. Stir over low heat until sugar dissolves. Bring to a boil, cover and thicken (about 8-10 minutes). Add from heat. Stir in vanilla. Dip 3 of the peaches in water that is boiling hot; allow to stand for a minute or two; remove skins.

Place skinned peaches in sugar syrup; simmer until tender when pierced with a fork — 5 to 8 minutes. Remove peaches with a slotted spoon. Meanwhile skin remaining peaches as before and add to syrup; cook as before.

Refrigerate all 6 peaches in the vanilla syrup until chilled, or overnight, so fruit absorbs some syrup. At time peaches are cooked, or just before serving, rinse raspberries in cold water; drain. Mash through an extremely fine-meshed strainer until there is nothing but seeds to be discarded. Stir in sugar; chill; (there will be about 1 cup sauce).

At serving time, drain peaches; arrange on firm flat servings of ice cream; coat each peach with 2 or 3 tablespoons of raspberry sauce. Makes 6 servings.

Party Beef Roast

The hostess will delight the potluck crowd by preparing a beef pot roast with a bit of glamour. Button mushrooms, celery, and a green pepper give company elegance to this savory tender beef roast.

A chuck roast with the round bone, or blade bone, cut 2 to 2½ inches thick will weigh 5 to 7 pounds. Such cuts are fine, for both have a broad cut surface to take on the full flavor of vegetables and seasonings.

Dip the meat into flour seasoned with salt and pepper. Brown well in 2 or 3 tablespoons of hot fat in a deep kettle. Add 1 medium-sized sliced onion and 2 cupfuls canned tomatoes. Cover and simmer about 2½ hours. Add ¼ cup button mushrooms, 1 sliced green pepper, and 3 or 4 stalks of celery that have been cut into 1-inch pieces. Simmer 30 minutes.

Remove the roast and vegetables to a warm platter with 2 broad spatulas. Measure both and add enough water to make 2 cupfuls. Make a paste by mixing some of the broth with 3 tablespoons flour. Return broth to kettle. Stir in flour paste. Bring mixture to a boil, stirring as the gravy thickens.

Pour the boiling hot gravy over the pot roast of beef. Arrange some of the mushrooms, onion, and green pepper rings on the surface of the meat to give an artistic touch to the arrangement.

The easiest way to clean Baby's nails is to run them over a bar of soap. Then give them a soft brushing in water to wash away imbedded dirt.

Fried Chicken

Ingredients: 1 broiler - fryer (about 3 pounds ready - to - cook weight), ¼ cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1-3 cup butter or margarine, 1½ cups sifted flour, 1½ teaspoons double-acting baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 4 eggs, 1½ cups milk, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine (melted).

Method: Have chicken cut so there are 2 pieces of breast, 2 wings, 2 second joints, 2 drumsticks; make stock of wing tips, neck, bony back and giblets. Stir together ¼ cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon pepper on waxed paper. Coat washed and dried chicken pieces with mixture. Melt 1-3 cup butter in 12-inch skillet; add coated chicken and brown on both sides; save drippings. Sift together in the 1½ cups sifted flour, baking powder and 1 teaspoon of salt. Beat eggs until thick and lemon colored; beat in milk enough to combine; stir in melted butter. Pour batter into baking dish (about 12 by 8 by 2 inches); arrange browned chicken in batter. Bake in moderate (350 degrees oven) 1 hour; or until batter is lightly browned. Makes 4 servings. A delicious sauce for the chicken pudding may be made from the reserved drippings, slightly thickened chicken stock, light cream and mushrooms.

Sagging cane chair seats can be bolstered without professional assistance. First wash the cane seat with hot sudsy water. And then rinse, again with hot water. This let; add coated chicken and brown lightens the cane. Don't sit down on both sides; save drippings. Sift while he seat is still damp or it will stretch.

Wet Weather May Ruin Area Wheat Crop

The quality of wheat in Columbiana and Mahoning counties will be adversely affected if above-average rains continue during the next week, agriculture officials predict. Continual rains may prohibit early harvesting of what has been forecast as an above average bumper crop of wheat. The rain has created no serious problem yet but is a concern to area farmers. Serious losses could be incurred if a dry period doesn't break to dry out the wheat fields. Floyd Lower, Columbiana County extension agent, said that wheat in the county is just beginning to get ripe enough to combine. He said area farmers shouldn't lose too much grain if it dries this week. But, he said, if rain continues, the grain will become too ripe and part of it will fall on the ground. Mr. T. W. Richards, office manager of the Mahoning County Soil Conservation Service, explained that wet grain softens if it stands too long in the fields, affecting the quality of the grain. Mr. Phillips said rain also creates a second problem when the moisture-soaked grain pulls the stems over and part of the grain is lost in harvesting. The weather outlook for the next 10 days isn't too optimistic. The Columbus Weather Bureau predicts rains will continue with only temporary dry periods.

Pineapple Cake

Ingredients: 1 package (1 pound and 2 ounces) pineapple cake mix, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 can (1 pound and 4 ounces) crushed pineapple.

Method: Make up cake mix, baking in two round layer-cake pans each 9 by 1 1/4 inches, according to package directions. In a 1-quart saucepan stir together thoroughly the cornstarch, sugar and salt. Gradually add small amount of pineapple syrup, stirring until smooth after each addition; stir in remaining syrup and the crushed pineapple.

Cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat until thickened, clear and boiling. cool. Spread half to two-thirds of filling over one cake layer; top with second layer. Spread remaining filling over top. Refrigerate. Serve with whipped cream.

Note: Before filling cake, line edges of cake plate with wide strips of waxed paper that may be pulled out easily from under cake before serving. Small amount of filling that may drop down from will look pretty on sides of cake and plate will be clean when paper is removed.

Corned Beef Hash

Ingredients: One can (1 pound) corned beef hash, 2 medium-size tomatoes, 4 onion slices, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 teaspoon sugar, 1/4 teaspoon basil, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine.

Method: Open can of corned beef hash at both ends to remove in one piece. Cut into four slices. Halve tomatoes. Place corned beef hash patties on baking sheet, place under broiler; broil until brown on top. Turn patties; top each with a tomato half. Sprinkle with half the salt, pepper, sugar and basil; dot with 1 tablespoon of the butter.

Place onion slices on top; sprinkle with remaining seasonings and dot with remaining butter. Broil about 10 minutes or until heated through and onions are flecked with brown. Makes 4 servings.

Where to place a stirring spoon without messing up the stove or counter is always a problem. An extra lid or dish helps. An easier device is to use a clean sponge on which to rest a spoon. Then just squeeze sponge through suds after using.

Salad Roslyn

Ingredients: 1 container (8 ounces) skim milk cottage cheese, 1 1/2 teaspoons minced fresh dill, salt, freshly ground pepper, 2 to 3 cups bite-size pieces torn salad greens (packed down), 1/2 of a large cucumber, 1 carrot, French dressing made with a very small amount of oil.

Method: Mix cottage cheese with dill and salt and pepper to taste. Arrange salad greens on two individual salad plates. Remove part of peel from cucumber so as to have lengthwise striped effect; slice thin. Pare carrot; using coarse grater, shred in long thin strips. Arrange cucumber and carrot on salads. Serve with small amount of French dressing. Makes 2 large servings.

4-H Club News

Butler-Sew-Merrill 4H Club

Clara Mae and Donna Hartley were hostesses Monday for the Butler-Sew-Merrill 4-H Club meeting.

As part of the health and safety project, chemicals were passed out to each girl for use in killing poison ivy.

Demonstrations were given by Sue Ellen Hunter on how to prepare a relish plate; Judy Howells and Stevie Thomas gave a team demonstration on different sewing stitches; and safety talks were given by Kathy and Nancy Stamp on poison sumac.

A picnic was recently held at Sevaeken Country Club. Miss Julia Shank and Miss Helen McGarry, guests, helped in the judging of various club projects.

The next meeting will be held at Butler Grange Hall on July 28 with a dance and party to follow the meeting.

As practiced during the Middle Ages, alchemy was a mixture of science and magic. It usually is considered the forerunner of modern chemistry. One of the principal purposes of alchemy was to change less costly metals into gold and silver.

SPAIN — The unsettled political situation in France, kingpin of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, has focused attention on Spain and the complex of U.S. air bases there. Begun in 1953, the 350-million dollar military building program is about 85 per cent completed. Some 5,000 American servicemen are stationed in Spain; the number is expected to double within a year. The air bases provide a supplement to NATO bases elsewhere in Europe. Map above locates American bases (underlined). They include four major airfields, an air supply depot, seven radar sites, a Navy fuel and ammunition depot and a four-million-dollar communications center. Largest field is at Torrejon, near the capital of Madrid. Its 13,400-foot runways are Europe's largest. A 50-million-dollar, 485-mile underground pipeline ties the bases together, connecting storage facilities for four million barrels of fuel. Spain, with a population of 29 million, is a country twice the size of Wyoming, sharing the Iberian Peninsula with Portugal.

Seville Cookies

Ingredients: ¾ cup sifted flour, ¼ teaspoon baking soda, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 egg, ¼ cup butter or margarine, ¼ cup firmly packed light brown sugar, ¼ teaspoon vanilla, ¼ cup Seville-orange marmalade, ½ cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces (roughly chopped) ¼ cup chopped walnuts (about the size of the chopped chocolate).

Method: Sift together the flour, baking soda and salt. Beat egg until thick and lemon-colored. Without washing beater (if using electric mixer) cream butter, brown sugar and vanilla. Beat in egg. Stir in sifted dry ingredients, marmalade, chocolate and walnuts.

Drop rounded (not heaping) teaspoonfuls of the mixture a couple of inches apart onto well-greased baking sheets. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) until browned around edges — about 7 minutes. Let stand on pan about 1 minute, just until edges won't shrink. Then remove to wire racks by lifting cookie edge with sharp tip of spatula and sliding spatula under cookie. If cookies get crisp before removal, replace in oven for a few seconds to soften. Makes 3½ to 4 dozen.

Ripe Olive Salad

One third cup ripe olives, 1 cup diced tomato, 1 tablespoon diced green sweet pepper, 1 tablespoon thinly sliced green onion, 2 cups shredded lettuce, tart French dressing, salad greens.

Cut olives in large pieces. Combine olives, tomato, pepper, onion and lettuce. Toss lightly with French dressing. Serve on garnished salad plates. (Makes 6 servings)

Green Pepper Salad

Combine 3 cups creamy cottage cheese with 1-3 cup minced chives, ¼ cup finely grated fresh carrots, 1½ teaspoons salt and ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper. Cut tops off 3 large green peppers. Scoop out seeds and fill with cottage cheese mixture. Wrap in foil or waxed paper.

Chill overnight or until firm enough to slice. Cut into ½-inch slices. Serve on chicory or lettuce with mayonnaise or French dressing.

Household Hints

Grandmother had a reason for paring her potatoes thin. She avoided loss of valuable minerals and vitamins. Serving potatoes in their jackets also saves these food elements close to the skin.

Serving a dessert is often complicated as a sticking knife spoils a cake or pie. A pretty meringue, for example, needs a clean cut. To get this, butter the pie knife blade before using it.

Dirt ground into fibers of rugs causes them to wear more rapidly. Thus it is wise to use a vacuum cleaner or carpet sweeper daily on all rugs and carpets.

Miami of Ohio Planning To Teach Via Television

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — If you live in Butler County, you can probably go back to school next fall via your television set.

Miami University announced plans today to telecast classes in physiology, zoology, educational psychology and government. Courses will be transmitted on Miami's channel 14 education station on the UHF band. Some sets require an adapter to receive this band, which covers channels 14 to 29.

Anyone can sit in on the TV lectures, of course, but to get credit, of course, but to get credit and take part in the written work requires a $30 course fee.

University officials said this is a step in long-range plans to ultimately set up off-campus centers at Norwood, Hamilton and Middletown.

DELIVERYMAN KILLED

Put bars of scented toilet soap to work before they are used by the family. They make excellent sachets when stored among clean linens. The trick here is to remember that they are there when making a grocery list.

Insure picnic comfort by taking along something to wash away play dirt. You can pack a jar of food stains and dirt attract moths, soapuds and one of clean waer. This is especially good insurance when going into areas where sanitary facilities are in doubt. Greening of the potato skin is caused by exposure to light. Potatoes purchased in large quantities need to be stored a 40 o 50 degrees and protected from light.
